Exercise 7

Dear Yoshiko,

I'm sorry I haven't written to you since so long. I received your letter since six weeks but I've been very busy.

As could you probably know

I'm in Wales since September. I came here mainly for learning English.

At first it was a bit difficult because I didn't speak English well and I missed a lot of things from home. But now life is much more easier.

I've managed to find a work in an office in the centre of Cardiff. It's a computer company and I'm very interesting in computers, and the people is very kind to me so I'm very lucky. It's also very good for me as I have to speak English all day long.

A few weeks ago I've been in a disco and met a Welsh man, called Derek. He wanted that I teach him Italian, so next day we met again and we have fallen in love! As you can imagine, this is excellent for my English!

Just a moment; someone knocks at the door. I'll go and answer it.

That was Derek with the tickets; we will go to a concert this evening and we aren't leaving as soon as I finish this letter.

I have moved into a larger flat and I've decided to stay here for at least a year, (it depends of Derek).

Have you ever gone to Wales?

If not, why you not come and visit me before you go back to Japan?

Wales is beautiful and I'd love to see you again.

Please, write again soon and say yes.

With love,

Cathy
