Task 2: You are going to read an article about four teenagers who have started their own business. For questions 1-10, choose from the teenagers (A-D). The teenagers may be chosen more than once.

A

Oliver, 16

I suppose it was obvious I had a head for business when I was about six. I used to make my parents cups of tea in the morning – and charge them 20p for each one. And it was another 20p if it needed reheating. And then about a year ago I was in a chain coffee shop waiting in line to get my drink, and I just realised how dreadful the whole experience was – dirty tables, rubbish, WiFi and grumpy staff. And I thought 'I bet I could do better than that'. So a friend and I launched an app enabling people to access menus, order and interact with each other. Since then I haven't looked back. I was concerned that I wasn't doing too well at school, which was a bit depressing, but with the business going so well, it feels great to be where I am now.

B

Alfie, 15

When people ask what I do, I tell them I advise people about their brand on social media. They can't believe I'm doing this while I'm so young. But I love it. The tricky bit is getting everything done that I need to; sometimes there aren't enough hours in the day! I've been doing the job about six months, and it took quite a lot of effort at the start to persuade my mum and dad that it wasn't just a waste of time. But now they're confident I'm doing OK. Which is just as well, because now that I've launched an online magazine, I should have several more projects on the way, as long as I can get the money together. One's going to be setting up a firm with my best mate – it should start to do quite well after about a year. So watch this space!

CJosie, 18

Using social media comes naturally to me, and it's not something I've ever had to try to get my head around. I'm in my first year at uni, and I was lending a hand to someone who wanted to organise a social media campaign for a university sports club. I did lots of work for her, setting it up and publicising it, and she couldn't believe the results I got. It was amazing! So I thought 'You know what – I could make some money out of doing this sort of thing'. When I'm talking to clients, obviously I don't shout about my age, I mean you want to be taken seriously. When I graduate, I want to help my parents run their business, or at least do that part-time. I'm excited about the future.

DEve, 15

Well, I've never liked spending money, even at a really young age. But now that I've worked out how to make money. I'm really driven to get out of bed every morning and make as much as I can. I basically run an online shop, and I've had over 100 customers so far. It's always nice when a customer visits the store and buys from you again – you know you're doing something right. I don't always get things right though. In fact, there are lots of things I've got very wrong, like setting my prices too high – or too low! But that can be useful, because when something doesn't go as planned, you can always adapt and hope you do it better next time.

Which teenager ...

1. says they are highly motivated? _____
2. has started to feel more confident? _____
3. is planning to open another business? _____
4. says that managing time can be hard? _____
5. says they learn from their mistakes? _____
6. says that their age surprises some people? _____
7. tends not to tell people how old they are? _____
8. wanted to improve an experience for customers? _____
9. says their work involves something they find easy? _____
10. realised what they wanted to do while helping someone else? _____

The Australian Young Photographers' Competition

Every year the Australian Young Photographers' Association organises a photography competition for young people. Later this year the organisation will be 30 years old and, to celebrate, we have a very special prize. If you win, you will go on a trip for two (you and a parent or another adult in your family) to the rainforest in Borneo! If you are an Australian high school student aged between 12 and 18, then enter our competition. There are two second prizes of $200 each (one for 12-14-year-olds and one for 15-18-year-olds) and two third prizes of $100 each (one for 12-14-year-olds and one for 15-18-year-olds).

We are looking for photographs that show either Australia's amazing wildlife – its birds, snakes, animals or insects – or its dramatic landscapes – its open spaces, rainforests, rivers and beautiful cities. A photograph can show us much more about a country than a written description. So send us one which explains what Australia means to you.

You may enter the competition as many times as you wish but all entries must be accompanied by $5 entrance fee. Any photograph which has already been a competition winner should not be entered. To enter, go online at www.youngphotographers.au/competition and upload your photograph using the form provided. Each entry must include your name, date of birth, and e-mail address and a daytime contact phone number. If you are 14 years of age or under, you need to provide us with the e-mail address of a responsible adult. Make sure they are happy for you to use their e-mail address. If you are 15 years or over, you can use your own e-mail address. If you prefer, you can print the form and send us your photograph by post.

The competition opens at midnight on 1 March. The closing date for online entry is 30 April. The closing date for entries by post to be received in the Competition Office is 23 April. Winners will receive the news by e-mail or phone no later than 5 May. There will be a special exhibition in City Halls between 28 May and 4 June.

Where a photograph entered in the competition shows a person other than yourself, you must get the necessary permission from the other person and you must send us that permission in writing. If you are one of our winners, you must agree to the organization using your name, photograph and/or voice for an unlimited period of time, without payment, for advertising purposes. We will not tell you each time we do so.

Task 8: Read the following texts and complete the tasks.

Text A:

Anna:

I'd like to take my family on holiday this summer - but I don't have a lot of money - any suggestions?

Julie:

I've always loved camping: the freedom to travel anywhere with your car and your tent! In recent years, campsites have become more expensive - but they do have many facilities. Sometimes you can ask a farmer if you can spend the night on his or her land, that's usually a lot cheaper.

Francis:

I totally disagree with Julie. Spending my holiday in a hot, sweaty tent is my idea of hell! I think a package holiday at the beach is a great idea: hotel, meals and flights all included. Your kids can have fun in the sand and you can relax - it's a real no stress solution!

John:

I think a campsite is a good idea - but a tent isn't the only option. You could consider a caravan or mobile home if you want electricity and running water. A lot of campsites have swimming pools and clubs for kids, and there are sometimes shops and even restaurants if you don't feel like cooking!

Text B:

We're all looking for a stress-free holiday but if you have kids, it's not always so easy! Follow our guide to keeping them safe and entertained this holiday season!

- Remember to pack cards, paper and pencils: they might seem old-fashioned, but they're great when the batteries run out!
- Encourage your kids to keep active with easy to pack items such as beach balls, table tennis bats and swimming gear.
- If your kids have phones or tablets: download some films or games to keep them occupied during the journey!
- If you are travelling abroad, it's a good idea to disable calls and internet on your children's phones! This can prevent some very expensive bills when you come back!
- Remember sun protection - take a high factor sun-cream and pack hats and sunglasses.
- Pack a simple first aid kit: antiseptic wipes, plasters and cream for insect bites can really come in useful for kids and adults!

Text C:

Save Money this Summer: Stay at Home!

We all think we have to spend a lot of money to give our kids a great holiday but it's not always the case. Peter stayed at home with his family last year and he would do it again! "The kids had a great time playing with all their friends all summer. We had plenty of money for day trips to the beach and amusement parks. We even put up a tent in our back yard for a few days - the boys loved it!"

It's a boost for the local economy too: cafes, parks, museums - and even the cinema on a wet day - there are so many options - why not try a "stay-cation" this year?

Text D:

Where do you prefer to go? We asked 150 eight to ten year olds! Here is what they told us!

Task 8a: Which text:

- (1) shows that not all children prefer to go away on holiday? _____
- (2) talks about taking technology on holiday? _____
- (3) gives advantages and disadvantages of different types of holiday? _____
- (4) includes the opinion of a father talking about what he did with his sons? _____
- (5) talks about helping local shops and businesses earn more money? _____

/5

Task 8b: Decide if the following statements are true or false.

- (1) Over half of eight to ten year olds are keen on going to the beach. _____
- (2) A package holiday usually includes the cost of flights and accommodation. _____
- (3) A city isn't a popular destination among eight to ten year olds. _____
- (4) You can be prepared for minor injuries. _____
- (5) You have to go to a campsite in order to go camping. _____
- (6) A 'stay-cation' can help local businesses. _____
- (7) It's always difficult to fit sports equipment in your suitcase. _____

/7

Task 8c: Fill in the gaps 1-3 word(s) taken directly from the text to make the sentences correct.

- (1) It's easy to _____ a tent at home and kids love it!
- (2) A 'stay-cation' could be a _____ for your personal finances as well as for local shops.
- (3) If you have a tent and a car, you can travel _____: you don't have to make a plan.
- (4) At the beach, children can enjoy the sea and _____ while mum and dad relax.
- (5) If you don't _____ on your kids' phones, you might return home to a massive bill!

/5

Task 9: Fill in the gaps in the phone conversations below. Use the expressions from the box in the correct form.

call,	leave,	return,	get through,	be afraid,	have got,
