Exercise 7: Cathy is staying in Wales. She has written a letter to her friend, Yoshiko, but she has made some mistakes in her English. Read the letter, find the mistakes and underline them. Then correct them next to the line. If there are not any mistakes in a line, please put a tick.

Dear Yoshiko,

I'm sorry I haven't written to you since so long. I received your letter since six weeks but I've been very busy. six weeks ago

As could you probably know As you

I'm in Wales since September. I came here mainly for learning English.

At first it was a bit difficult because I didn't speak English well and I missed a lot of things from home. But now life is much more easier.

I've managed to find a work in an office in the centre of Cardiff.

It's a computer company and I'm very interesting in computers, and the people is very kind to me so I'm very lucky.

It's also very good for me as I have to speak English all day long.

A few weeks ago I've been in a disco and met a Welsh man, called Derek. He wanted that I teach him Italian, so next day we met again and we have fallen in love! As you can imagine, this is excellent for my English!

Just a moment; someone knocks at the door. I'll go and answer it.

That was Derek with the tickets; we will go to a concert this evening and we aren't leaving as soon as I finish this letter.

I have moved into a larger flat and I've decided to stay here for at least a year, (it depends of Derek).

Have you ever gone to Wales?

If not, why you not come and visit me before you go back to Japan?

Wales is beautiful and I'd love to see you again.

Please, write again soon and say yes.

With love,

Cathy
Exercise 8: Read the following text about shopping in Manchester and decide if each of the statements which follow the text is true, false or not mentioned and put a tick in the appropriate box.

'If you are looking for the best shopping choice in the North West, then City Centre Manchester is the right place'
Whatever you are shopping for, you'll almost certainly find it in the City Centre Manchester. You'll find more choice and your shopping will be more enjoyable in City Centre Manchester – where you're right in the heart of things.

'Let's start with one of the main shopping thoroughfares in the city – Market Street.’
Market Street has now been pedestrianised and runs from Piccadilly Gardens down to the road known as Deansgate. Here, you'll find many famous top name department stores, chain stores and a host of other shops, offering everything from the latest fashions and the tops of the pops, to household goods, holidays abroad and somewhere to eat. While you are in the area, don't miss the market in Spring Gardens, off Market Street.

'Manchester’s most exclusive shopping areas.’
King Street, St. Ann’s Square and Deansgate Here you’ll find unusual shops, both large and small, including leading fashion houses, jewellers, booksellers and shops selling traditional and modern furnishings, plus another of Manchester’s top department stores. St. Ann’s Square has now been tastefully pedestrianised, complementing the quality shops. A pavement café is a new feature.

The Royal Exchange Shopping Centre between St. Ann’s Square and Cross Street, is housed in the historic Royal Exchange Building next to the Royal Exchange Theatre. It is a fascinating centre for exclusive fashions, arts, crafts and specialist shops selling top quality merchandise.

'The Arndale Centre – probably the largest covered shopping area in Europe’
The Arndale Centre has to be seen to be believed. Wide, air-conditioned boulevards on two levels lead you in comfort around the major stores and 200 smaller shops and eating places, whatever the weather. You'll also find the High Street Market within the Arndale Centre. This covered market has nearly 200 stalls, offering foods and a complete range of goods at bargain prices. The Arndale Centre is easy to get to, with parking for 1 800 cars and a joining bus station.

Chinatown Situated between Piccadilly and Princess Street. Chinatown offers a wealth of Chinese restaurants, speciality supermarkets and gift shops.

Exercise 9: In the daily newspaper you read an article about one of your favourite journalists. Read the text and then put a tick into the correct box.

I am Lucy Holmes and I’d like to inform you about my work. People often ask me why I decided to start a new magazine. Well, I have been a journalist for many years working for newspapers and magazines in this country and abroad. I’ve always dreamt of starting my own magazine, not because I want to be rich but because I want to do something different. And now I’ve done it! It is different from other magazines and I’m sure it’s going to be successful.

So what’s the magazine like? I should explain that it’s a local magazine that will come out each Wednesday – it’s the same size as the local weekly newspaper and in fact looks very similar, but it doesn’t carry news and it doesn’t report on events as they happen. I think this is the important difference. You can buy it in all the usual places you would buy your local newspaper.

The magazine itself is divided into two main parts; the first half is a ‘what’s on’ guide which contains information about everything that is happening in the city over a seven-day period. There are music and film reviews, and information about special events, so you can decide what’s worth spending your time on. And it’s also got local bus timetables and useful phone numbers.

There are also reports on restaurants. But we’re not going to write only good things about the restaurants we choose, because these are not advertisements. They are the honest opinions of our journalists. That’s a strength of this magazine, the writers are all independent journalists who say what they think.

That’s one half of the magazine, the other half is the articles. We want to write about the lives of local people. They may be famous or not but they have all done something interesting as developing a new business. There are several famous artists in the city, like Lily Godchild who has talked to us about her life in the first issue. We hope to interview a wide variety of people.

I’m really happy because there are some fantastic journalists living in the area, many of them busy writing for national papers, and they’re supporting the new magazine by writing for it. The journalists are happy because the magazine has room for longer articles so they have more space to give their opinions.

1. What is Lucy’s main reason for starting a new magazine?
   A – She was asked to it.
   B – She wanted to produce her own magazine.
   C – She wanted more writing experience.

2. The magazine is different from a local newspaper because of
   A – what it contains.
   B – where you can buy it.
   C – what it looks like.

3. The first half of the magazine helps people to
   A – keep up to date with world news.
   B – plan holidays around Britain.
   C – choose leisure activities.

4. The restaurants in the reports are chosen because
   A – readers recommend them.
   B – the journalists have tried them.
   C – people have complained about them.

5. In the second half of the magazine you can find
   A – articles to help local businesses.
   B – articles about local people
   C – reviews of local artists’ work.

6. What pleases Lucy about the magazine?
   A – the high quality of the writers
   B – the variety of subjects covered
   C – the attitude of the readers
